Eat and Run.

There isn't a man who would be seen running through the street munching a piece of pie. Why not? Because it would mean dyspepsia and stomach trouble. Not at all; but because it would look well. As a matter of fact, a business man snatches a lunch in such a hurry that he might as well take it on the run. That is one reason for the prevailing "stomach trouble" among men of business.

There is a certain remedy for diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It is Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The worst cases of dyspepsia and catarrh of the stomach have been cured by this medicine. It cures where all other medicines have failed to cure.

"I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mrs. C. E. Jones, Esq., of Taylorstown, London, Ontario, Canada. "I did not feel so much better until I had taken the third bottle. I can eat anything now. I am so well pleased with it I hardly know how to thank you for your kind information. I tried a whole lot of things before I wrote to you. There was a gentleman told me about your medicine and how it had cured his wife. I thought I would try a bottle of it. I am now glad I did, for I don't know what I would have done if it had not been for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness. They stimulate the sluggish liver, and cleanse the system of impurities. They should always be used with "Golden Medical Discovery" when there is need of a laxative.

INSULT TO WORKINGMEN.
The republican party, says the New York Evening Journal, seeking to catch the labor vote, has hit upon the "full dinner pail" as a trade mark. Poor, stupid republicanism decides to issue hundreds of thousands of badges, each with the "full dinner pail" painted on the back.

Workmen, if you please, are expected to wear these badges, to wear with them a happy, grateful smile as they trudge from the trust factory to their homes. Of course, only workmen are to wear the "dinner pail" badge. No trust manager would think of doing so. He will wear, if anything, a small facsimile of a government bond—if he saw his fellow with the "full dinner pail" badge on, both would laugh very heartily.

Foolish Mark Hanna, foolish Rockefeller, foolish trusts and bankers. You get so far from the people you forget they are human beings. You think of the workmen as you think of swine, eager only to fill their bellies. You do not know them. They think of their children, of their children's future, of their own present independence and manhood. When you offer them a "dinner pail" badge, you offer a stupid insult with every badge. They want their rights, not your charity or patronage. They don't thank you for the food that comes through their hard work. You have got them into the mental attitude of serfs. They do not look on you, Messrs. Trusts, as their Divine Providence.

The American workman thanks himself for what is in his dinner pail. And although you never seem to dream of it, the workman even dares to think of a day when he shall eat his dinner, not from a pail, but at home with his family, as you, Messrs. Trust Owners, eat yours. Pity more trust managers and republican managers could not have stood where Roosevelt stood while addressing the workman Monday in Chicago. There was a lesson concerning the "dinner pail" that almost any trust manager—even Hanna himself—might understand. Thousands of men gathered there had been locked out of work by republican indifference, republican contractors, trusts and newspapers for several months. They had seen their families suffer. Every day they had been told that if they would yield their independence and manhood they could have a "full dinner pail." Wages as good as they asked were offered them, and the hours were to be eight only. But to get the good wages and the "full dinner pail" they must agree not to unite for mutual protection. They must dissolve their central body, give up acting together, scatter like humble sheep and throw themselves upon the mercy of their republican shepherds, the contractors and supply men.

This choice was offered them: Submission and a "full dinner pail," independence, manhood and an empty stomach. The workmen chose the empty stomach. They rejected the "full dinner pail" and have stood out for seven months.

Roosevelt, after looking over that crowd of determined faces, will be able, on his oath, to tell Hanna that something more than a "full dinner pail" is needed to trap the breed of workmen that grow up in this country. He will be able to tell how he was misled and how little good the "dinner pail" idea did him.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?
A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but always inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years ago by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

A Word to Mothers.
Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of croup and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by all druggists.

To Cure Constipation Forever.
Take Chamberlain's Candy Cathartic. It cures. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

Large sun spots, astronomers say, caused the extreme heat this summer, and doctors declare nearly all the prostrations were induced by disorders of the stomach. Good health follows good digestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. If you have indigestion or dyspepsia it will quickly relieve and permanently cure you.
